A “BIG WEEK” FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT

UNE GRANDE SEMAINE POUR FAIRE LE PLEIN DE GAÏÉTÉ

“Semana Grande” erupts right in the middle of summer.

Popular belief holds that the people of Donostia are rather smug or “kaskarina”. Our city has earned itself a well-deserved reputation for its hardworking people, but people who also know how to have a good time. Just like the three young ladies or hiru damatxoak in the popular song selling their wares in Rentería, we also take time out for a glass of wine, in moderation.

The next few days will be brimming over with merriment, fun and the joys of life, and every street will give us a reason to join the party.

The city claims its right to fun as soon as the cannon roars, swathing it in colour and music. Concerts, fireworks, gastronomy competitions, sporting feats, shows by night... There is no end to the list of the events we have planned, and we will all find our space for having fun.

Fearlessly and freely, we must be responsible and act with respect towards everyone, because the smile on each of our faces will be the mainstay of collective joy. Together all of us will genuinely make our Big Week a week to have fun.

La Grande Semaine surgit en plein cœur de l'été.

La sagesse populaire donne aux habitants de Saint-Sébastien un caractère « kaxkarina ». Notre ville est bien connue pour la capacité de travail de ses habitants, mais ils savent également bien s'amuser. Comme les hiru damatxoak de la chanson populaire qui sont commerçants à Rentería, nous savons aussi nous arrêter de travailler pour nous régaler d'un verre de vin, avec modération.

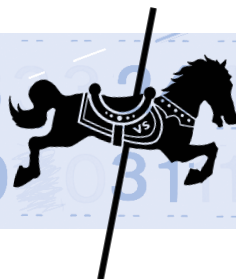

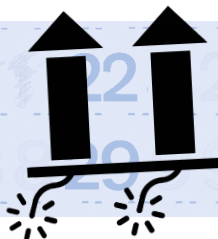

Pendant les jours à venir, la joie, la bonne humeur et l'enthousiasme vont se propager sur la ville et nous aurons tous une bonne raison de nous joindre à la fête.

À peine le coup de canon lancé, la ville revendique son droit à s'amuser et s'emplit de couleur et de musique. Elle fourmille de concerts, de feux d'artifice, de concours gastronomiques, d'épreuves sportives, de shows nocturnes... La liste des actes programmés est interminable et nous allons tous trouver notre propre espace pour nous divertir pleinement.

Sans peur, en liberté, soyons responsables et respectueux des autres parce que le sourire de chacun d'entre nous sera le pilier de la joie de tous. Avec l'implication de tous et de toutes, nous ferons de la Grande Semaine une vraie occasion de s'amuser pleinement.
