DONOSTIA-SAN SEBASTIAN

SAN SEBASTIAN, THE WAY WE LIKE IT

DONOSTIA COMME ON L'AIME

There are many ways to explain what Aste Nagusia is, but the simplest is probably to say that this is the time when we experience San Sebastian in a special way.

The streets are filled with activities, the neighbourhoods have a different atmosphere, and there is always something to do around every corner. These are days to meet up with friends, to head out as a family, to enjoy music, sport, cuisine, and everything that makes these festivities one of the most eagerly awaited events of the summer.

But there is something that I particularly like about Aste Nagusia: seeing how each person makes it their own. Some will be sure not to miss a single night of fireworks. Others excitedly await the procession of giants and bigheads, attend concerts, culinary events or gatherings with their kuadrilla of friends. And then there are those who simply enjoy strolling around the street for a few days, breathing in a different atmosphere.

This year we will also have new initiatives to continue discovering San Sebastian from other perspectives: activities linked to our history and our roots, to the natural world, and even science. All of them open to the people of San Sebastian, along with all our local traditions, from the very first shot fired by the Artillero.

Aste Nagusia is the perfect week to head outside, enjoy the festivities responsibly, and above all revel in the city the way we like it, in the company of those around us.

Il y aurait mille manières d'expliquer ce qu'est la Aste Nagusia, mais la plus simple serait probablement de dire que c'est une semaine de fête qu'ici, à San Sebastián, nous vivons d'une façon très spéciale.

Les rues se remplissent d'activités, les quartiers s'imprègnent d'une atmosphère différente et à chaque coin de rue, un nouveau plan nous attend. Ce sont des jours pour retrouver nos ami(e)s, pour sortir en famille, pour profiter de la musique, du sport, de la gastronomie et de toutes ces activités qui font de ces fêtes l'un des rendez-vous les plus attendus de l'été.

Il y a quelque chose que j'aime tout particulièrement dans la Aste Nagusia : voir comment chaque personne vit ces fêtes à sa manière. Certains ne manqueront pas une seule soirée de feux d'artifice. D'autres attendront avec émotion le passage des géants et des grosses têtes, vivront les concerts, les activités gastronomiques ou les sorties entre copains. Et il y a aussi ceux qui, tout simplement, prendront plaisir à se promener dans des rues qui, durant cette semaine, respirent une ambiance différente.

Cette année s'annonce en plus avec de nouvelles propositions pour continuer à découvrir San Sebastián sous d'autres perspectives, grâce à des activités liées à notre histoire et à nos racines, à la nature, ou même à la science. Toutes ouvertes aux habitants de la ville et prêtes à venir s'ajouter à nos traditions dès les premières notes de l'Artillero.

La Aste Nagusia est la semaine idéale pour sortir dans la rue, vivre la fête avec responsabilité et surtout, profiter de la ville au mieux et comme on l'aime en compagnie de ceux qui nous entourent.
